

Sunrise Leadership Series: Discover the untapped power of “See, Listen & Learn - the Gemba Walk”

The AME Sunrise series continues with the employee engagement theme by learning the benefits of and how to, “Go-See, Listen and Learn”, in the Team members’ environment, where the work is done and value is created, at the Gemba.

REGISTER
HERE

Key Details

Date: Tuesday 26 May 2026
Time: 6:45 am - 8:30am AEST
Venue: Westfield Garden City Library
Format: Networking Breakfast
Fee: AME Member $10 / Non Member $35

What You Will Learn

- Various factors that hinder people seeing what matters
- Why Leaders must GO-SEE to build a connection with those at the frontline
- The importance of the Gemba to build better engagement and operational performance

Agenda

7:00 Welcome & Introductions
7:15 Seeing What Really Matters (Jan Gebraad)
7:30 Seeing, Listening & Learning at Work (Paul Deane)
8:00 Q&A
8:10 Wrap Up and Key Takeaways
8:20 Networking
8:30 Finish

Who Should Attend

Senior Leaders, Departmental people leaders, Operations Improvement leaders. Aspiring and developing leaders

Presenter

Paul Deane is an experienced Lean improvement practitioner with over 25yrs with small & large organisations and is passionate about how, tactically interacting with employees at the Gemba, changes workplaces for the better.

View the Full Event Details Here